

Dialogue: School Planning Process

How do we envision the roles of parents and students in the school planning process?

What values and beliefs should guide the development of our school plan?

What recommendations do you, as parents, have for supports?

What do you see as next steps in the process?

